Styling product to achieve tousled looking hair and glossy curls through natural gestures

jemile fran* Hair Makeup Series Cream & Gloss On Sale March 1

Development Background

Working women in their 20s want to look stylish in everyday life situations such as when they're casually running their fingers through their hair or when they're walking. Rather than sculpting a hairstyle in front of the mirror and making it keep, they want hair that moves on a whim or naturally to fit the situation.

For women who want to change their aura of beauty to match their particular mood or whomever they're meeting at the time, a cream and gloss have been added to Milbon's jemile fran hair and makeup series. These products will allow a woman to express her hair in a fashionable way while ensuring that it moves naturally whenever she runs her fingers through it.
